EWA HAS THREE PLAYERS STILL IN BIG TOURNAMENT

COUNTRY TENNIS EXPERTS DOING WELL IN CITY—COLLINS, EKLUND AND GREENFIELD ARE IN THE RUNNING—CASTLE LOOKS GOOD TO MANY.

As predicted in the Bulletin before the start of the Hall Cup tennis tournament, A. L. Castle and P. D. Collins are doing well and bidding fair to fight their way to the finals. Collins yesterday justified the confidence reposed in him by his plantation admirers by defeating Nowell by a score of two sets to one. The figures were 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, and the youngster did remarkably well to win out, considering that he lost the first set.

The match was a strenuous one, and when Nowell took the first set to four games, the Ewa contingent did not look too happy. Still, Collins went at his man in great fashion, and in the second set, although Nowell played up in his best fashion, the handicap of owe fifteen-give fifteen was too much for him to make up.

The third set was a repetition of the second, and Collins played to keep his opponent on the go all the time. The youngster brought off some fine strokes and, aided by his handicap, won out as related.

Captain Low got away with his man—Warren—in two sets straight, 6-3, 7-5, and the captain showed that he needs but little practice to get back into the form he showed when Long and McLoughlin were here early in the year. This afternoon Low and Castle will meet, and as they both play from the same mark, there should be some great tennis before the match is over.

On the Neighborhood courts A. L. Castle met and defeated Irwin. Castle owed fifteen, and Irwin played from scratch. The champion won out easily enough by a score of 6-1, 6-3, and he is getting better every game he plays. Castle has had no practice for some time, but that does not trouble him much, and should he get away with Captain Low this afternoon he should get into the finals, and then, should he and Collins meet, there will be a great fight before the Hall Cup is won.

Noel Deerr, who yesterday morning defeated Savage of Punahoa, was beaten in the afternoon by Sinclair, and the score was 6-4, 6-3. Deerr did not seem to play as sure a game as usual, and his opponent made few mistakes.

The third and deciding set, of the Atherton Richards-Waterhouse match was played, and Waterhouse won out by 6-3. The other two sets were played the day before, and each man won one. Atherton could not manage to owe Waterhouse fifteen, and the older man won out, 3-6, 8-6, 6-3.

Waterhouse, after beating Richards, turned out and defeated Schmidt, who received a handicap of thirty from scratch. The score was two sets straight, and Waterhouse did the trick to the tune of 6-3, 6-2. Schmidt and Stanley were the only two to receive the big start of thirty. The morning expert tennis writer, in alluding to this fact a few days ago, remarked that as the behind-scratch men were fifteen to the bad and Schmidt and Stanley were thirty to the good, the stars had to give the others a start of forty-five. It might be all right in billiards, but forty-five is a new one to tennis fans.

Another good match that was played yesterday was that between Greenfield of Ewa and C. G. Boekus. The struggle went the full three sets, and the score was in Greenfield's favor, 4-1, 5-7, 6-1. The two men played from the scratch mark, and although the first and third sets appear on paper to be easy victories for Greenfield, the match was closer than the score would indicate.

R. A. Cooke went down in defeat to W. N. Eklund, and the score was 7-5, 6-2. The man from Ewa played well, and he made good use of his handicap of fifteen. The first set was a hot one, and at five-all it looked as if either might win out. Eklund, however, took the two games necessary to win the set, and then the Ewa people began to shake hands with themselves.

The last match played was that between Steere and Wall, and the first named won two sets straight, 6-4, 6-4. The winner battled along from scratch, and Wall received fifteen.

The remarkable thing about the tournament, so far, is that the country players have all held their own with the city men, and that at the present stage three Ewa players—Eklund, Collins and Greenfield—are still in the running. McKeever of Ewa did not enter for the tournament, and as he is about the best at the plantation, when in form, it is a good thing for the Honolulu players that Ewa has not got more representatives in the Hall Cup contest.

There will be four matches played today, if the weather permits, and as on Saturday afternoons people can get away, there should be a good gathering at the Beretania courts, where all the matches will be played.

Cast's and Low will meet at half-past four o'clock on the Beretania courts, and by that time the fans should be gathered in force. At 2:30 o'clock Waterhouse and Greenfield will meet on the Pacific courts. At 3:30 Steere and Eklund will play on the Beretania courts, and then at 4 Collins and Sinclair will battle it out. All the matches this afternoon should be good, and when the smoke clears away there will be four players left in the tournament. These survivors will meet in the semi-finals on Monday, and the finals will probably be fought out on Tuesday.

The big canoe race this afternoon between the Kona crew and the haoles should attract a crowd. The Kona are expected to again win out, notwithstanding the fact that the crews have changed canoes for the race. The event will start at half-past four o'clock, and a purse of $50 has been hung up for the winners.

MEETING HELD LAST EVENING

GET TOGETHER OVER A. A. U. BUSINESS

Ten Clubs Will Join Amateur
Organization In November.
Baseball Soon—Pro's, Not Getting Into Line.

At the meeting of the local branch of the A. A. U. which was held yesterday afternoon at the office of Lorin Andrews, something definite was done as regards the affiliation of the Hawaiian sport bodies with the mother amateur association.

Eight clubs are to join, and they are as follows: Kamehameha Schools, Outrigger Club, Trail and Travel Club, Y. M. C. A., Grammar School League, Hawaiian Association Football League, Honolulu Cricket Club, Honolulu Yacht Club, The Healan and Myrtle boat clubs are to also join, from all accounts, and the movement will soon spread among the sporting bodies that really are in need of an amateur standing. No one suspects the Cricket Club, the Trail and Mountain Club or any of the present bunch of "lily whites" of taking money for their efforts on the hills or playgrounds. What is wanted is a missionary movement that will extend to, and finally bring into the fold, the hundreds of young fellows who are at present semi-professional ball players and who have in some way made money out of sports.

And it will be a hard job to convince some of the present-day sports that they should compete for the love of the game. Gate money appeals to most of them in a way that all the amateur cards in the world would not. The only way to change the state of affairs is to instill the love of amateur sport in the minds of the youngest kids at school, and teach them not to follow in the footsteps of their grown-up brothers.

Yesterday's meeting was successful, and a decision was come to that the A. A. U. be joined on November 15, and that the official sanction of ten amateur clubs be obtained to the sending of their names on to the national organization.

The clubs represented at the meeting yesterday were as follows: The Outrigger Club, by Mr. Tuttle; the Trail and Mountain Club, by A. H. Ford; the Military Athletic Association, by Corporal Woodruff of Fort Shafter; the Kamehameha Schools, by Stanley Livingston; the McKinley High School, by Professor Folsom; the Myrtle Boat Club, by Will Lyle; the Healan Yacht and Boat Club, by Bert Lightfoot; the Punahoa Alumni Baseball Team, by James P. Winne; the Oahu College Athletic Association, by D. J. Ricker; the Grammar School League, by R. S. Gault; the Y. M. C. A., by Paul Super; and the Honolulu Yacht Club, by Will Lyle.

Paul Withington has tired of the simple life on a plantation; he is leaving Waiialua and going back to Harvard University to become athletic manager of the varsity team. Withington graduated from Harvard last year, and when he left the institution of learning he was considered the best all-round athlete of the 'varsity.

In the Hall Cup tournament there are now eight men left, and they and their handicaps are as follow: Castle and Low, owe fifteen; Sinclair, Greenfield, Waterhouse and Steere, scratch; Eklund and Collins, receive fifteen.

TOWN'S STREETS
PAVED WITH ORE

Tailings From Rich Mines
Used to Make Sidewalks.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 19.—Oregon has two cities whose streets are paved with gold, and neither lays claim to being the New Jerusalem either. Medford and Jacksonville are the towns.

Sand used in the cement sidewalks of Jacksonville is taken from the tailings of the Opp mine, an extensive gold producer. These tailings were piled up before the construction of the cyanide plant and not all the gold was extracted from it. The tailings will run $1 to the ton in free gold.

The same material is used in paving the Medford streets. It is estimated that Medford pavements have more than $30,000 contained in them exclusive of the cost of these improvements to the municipality.

SAILORS WILL PLAY LOCAL CRICKETERS

Match at Makiki Grounds If Rain Holds Off.

There will be a cricket match this afternoon at the Makiki grounds, and the sailors from the British ships in port will go up against the Honolulu batsmen. The game should be an interesting one, and as the tars have had a little practice lately, they should show up well on the matting wicket.

The game will start at half-past two o'clock, and by that time all the players who can spare the afternoon should be on deck. If the rain holds off there should be some fun, and the attempts of the sailors to bowl Bob Anderson will probably cause some amusement.

Cricket has been rather dead lately, but there are indications that the old English game will be waking up a little soon. If eleven Australians can be gotten together in Honolulu there will be a great match played in the near future between the Hawaiian club and the Kangaroo-landers.

DOES AND DASHES.

The Oahu league has again postponed the opening of its second series till October 9. It was thought that if play was impossible on the Athletic Park diamond, the four games scheduled for tomorrow might be played at the league grounds. The meeting of the Oahu league took place last night after the Bulletin had gone to press, and the change of dates was made too late for publication.
